Objective and Features of the Fund

1. Objective of the Fund

The Fund aims at investment performance linked to the S&P Developed ex Japan REIT Index (Total Return)* (hereinafter referred as the “Benchmark Index”) converted into Japanese Yen, which means NAV volatility is to correspond with that of the Benchmark Index.

* S&P Developed ex Japan REIT Index (Total Return) is an index calculated by extracting REIT and other equities based on the system similar to REIT from the S&P Global Stock Index, which is a global index of S&P. This index is calculated daily based on market capitalization after floating stock adjustments of the Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT) and other equities based on the similar system of REIT listed in developed countries. Constituent countries and constituent equities of this index can vary because of the regular revisions.

In principle, the Benchmark Index in dollar is converted into Japanese yen by the Management Company using the average price of the telegraphic transfer customer rates of the next business day of the Benchmark Index calculation date.

2. Features of the Fund

■ Main subject of investment

- (i) Foreign REIT Index mother fund whose substantial and main subject of investment is Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT) securities* from countries around the world excluding Japan, and (ii) REIT securities that are included in the Benchmark Index (including such securities that are due to be included in the Benchmark Index) are to be the main subject of investment by the Fund.

- The Fund may use derivatives, such as the securities futures, and foreign exchange forward transactions, to keep the investment performance effectively linked to the Benchmark Index converted into Japanese Yen.

* The Real Estate Investment Trust securities (specified in the regulations of the Investment Trusts Association, Japan) listed (including equivalents thereof) on a foreign Financial Instruments Exchange. Even though some countries do not use “REIT” to describe the Real Estate Investment Trust securities, all Real Estate Investment Trust securities, including such cases, are called “REIT” with respect to the Fund.

■ Investment Policy

(i) The Fund is investing mainly in (a) mother fund, and (b) REIT that are included in the Benchmark Index (including the REIT that are due to be included in the Benchmark Index), and the Fund aims at investment performance linked to the Benchmark Index converted into Japanese yen.

(ii) The Management Company decides the investment ratio of mother fund, taking efficiency, etc., into consideration.

(iii) For the purpose of targeting investment performance effectively linked to the Benchmark Index converted into Japanese yen, the Management Company may primarily use derivatives, such as the securities futures, and foreign exchange forward transactions, for purposes beyond hedging, to realize gains and losses that are equivalent to those that arise as a result of holding assets that are subjects of investment, or to decrease the foreign exchange rate fluctuation risk, etc.

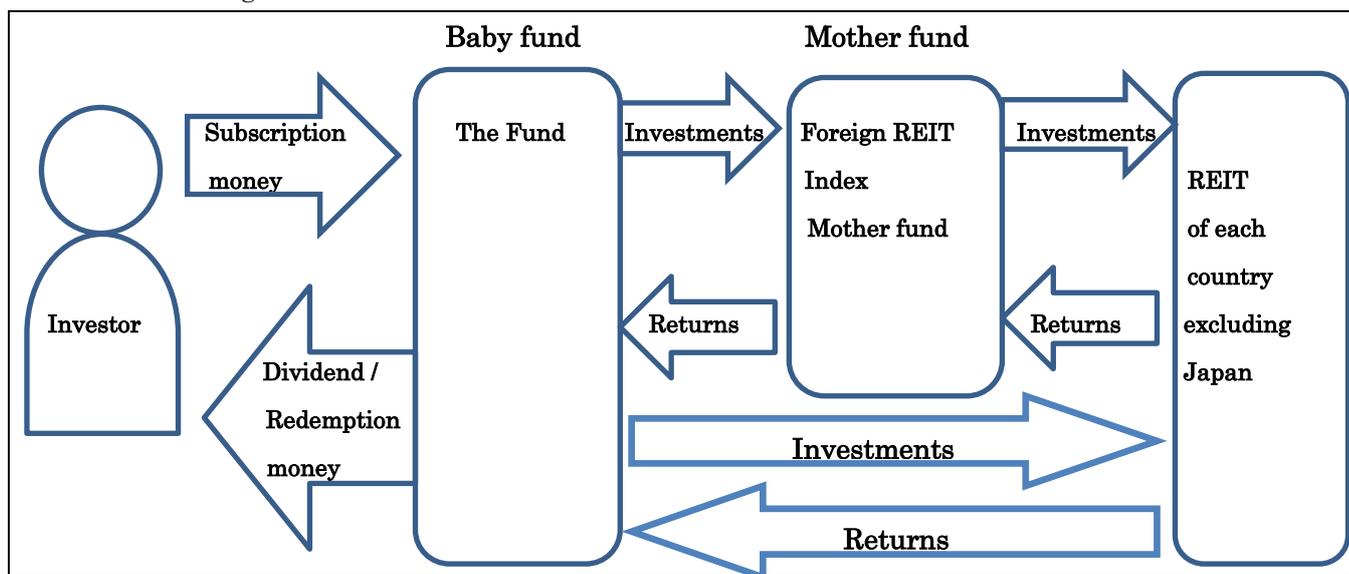

(iv) In principle, the Fund does not hedge for the foreign exchange rate applicable to foreign currency denominated assets that are substantially incorporated into the Fund.

■ Copyright, etc., of S&P Developed ex Japan REIT Index (Total Return)

The "S&P Developed ex Japan REIT Index (Total Return)" is a product of S&P Dow Jones Indices LLC ("SPDJI"), a division of S&P Global, and has been licensed for use by Nomura Asset Management Co., Ltd. Standard & Poor's® and S&P® are registered trademarks of Standard & Poor's Financial Services LLC ("S&P"), a division of S&P Global, and Dow Jones® is a registered trademark of Dow Jones Trademark Holdings LLC ("Dow Jones"). These trademarks have been licensed for use by SPDJI and have been sublicensed for use for certain purposes to Nomura Asset Management Co., Ltd. The Fund is not sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by SPDJI, Dow Jones, S&P, any of their respective affiliates, and any of these related parties shall not make any representation regarding the advisability of investing in the Fund, and are not liable for any errors, omissions, or delays therein of S&P Developed ex Japan REIT Index (Total Return).

Management described above may not be achieved depending on funding trends, market trends, etc.

- The Fund is managed on a family fund method, a method where investment is made through a mother fund.

■ Investment Restrictions

Investment ratio in assets denominated in foreign currencies	There is no restriction on the substantial investment ratio in assets denominated in foreign currencies.
Use of derivatives	Use of derivatives is not restricted to hedging purposes.
Investment ratio in investment trust securities	The substantial investment amount in investment trust securities (excluding mother fund and listed investment trust securities) must be not larger than 5 % of the NAV of the trust property.

■ Distribution Policy

- Dividends are due on the 7th of March, June, September and December of each year.
- As a general rule, the full amount of dividends and other income arising from the trust assets are distributed after deduction of expenses. However, the amount of dividends that are payable may in some circumstances amount to zero. Even if any profits are realized from the sale and purchase of individual securities, no dividends shall be paid.

* There is no suggestion or guarantee regarding the payment or the amount of future dividends.

Investment Risks

1. Factors that contribute to NAV volatility

The NAV of the Fund is subject to fluctuations in the prices of the securities, etc., in which the Fund invests. All profits and losses arising from fund management are borne by the investors. Any principal invested in the Fund by investors is therefore not guaranteed. Investors may incur a loss and the value of their investment principal may fall below par as the result of a decline in the NAV. The investment trust differs from a savings deposit.

REIT Price Fluctuation Risk	REIT prices can fluctuate due to various factors, including the condition of the real estate owned by investment corporations, fluctuation in the market interest rates, trends in the real estate market and the stock market, etc. NAV of the Fund may be influenced by those factors since the Fund substantially invests in REIT securities.
Exchange Rate Fluctuation Risk	The Fund may be influenced by exchange rate fluctuations since the Fund, as a general rule, does not have a currency hedge relating to the foreign currency denominated assets that are substantially incorporated into the Fund to limit its exposure to an exchange rate fluctuation risk.

* The factors that contribute to fluctuations in the NAV are not limited to those mentioned above.

<<Primary Factors for Discrepancies between the Benchmark Index and NAV>>

The Fund aims at an investment performance for NAV volatility linked to that of the Benchmark Index; however, in managing the investment assets, we cannot guarantee that movements will be identical to those of the Benchmark Index primarily for the following reasons:

- (i) We cannot make individual REIT securities' incorporated ratio in the Fund completely the same as the component proportion of component REIT securities in the Benchmark Index.
- (ii) The Fund may incur market impact or bear costs such as brokerage commission, etc., by the trading of individual REIT securities, when portfolio adjustments are made.
- (iii) There may be a disparity between (a) the timing of capital flow due to an additional issue or partial cancellations of the Fund, etc., and (b) the time the selected REIT securities in the Benchmark Index, etc., are actually traded in accordance with the said capital flow.
- (iv) There may be a disparity between the appraised value of the certain REIT security in the Fund and that of the same REIT security in the Benchmark Index.
- (v) There is a difference between (a) the exchange rate used for appraising the value of assets denominated in foreign currencies of the Fund, and (b) the exchange rate used for calculating the Benchmark Index.
- (vi) The Fund may make future transactions which refer to an index different from the Benchmark Index, and when such futures transactions are made, the movement of the prices of the futures will not necessarily correspond to that of the referenced index of such futures.

(vii) The dividends of the Fund-owned REIT securities are subject to taxation (While the Fund is calculated with dividends after tax, the Benchmark Index can be calculated with dividends before tax).

(viii) The Fund bears certain costs, such as trust fees.

* The factors that contribute to the discrepancy between the Benchmark Index and NAV are not limited to those listed above.

* The above also applies to the case where investment is made through a mother fund.

2. Additional Considerations

The provisions stipulated in Article 37-6 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (so-called “cooling off”) are not applicable to subscriptions to the Fund.

- Management based upon the investment policy may not be achieved depending on funding trends, market trends, etc., or unexpected circumstances.
- The interest/liquidation payment from the issuers of the securities which are substantially incorporated into the Fund may be delayed.
- Transactions pertaining to the Fund, such as an investment in securities and contracts related to such fund, may default because of the bankruptcy, or other similar event, occurring to a counterparty.
- NAV of the Fund and the Benchmark Index may differ because of costs and other factors. It is not guaranteed that the Fund’s investment performance will track or exceed the Benchmark Index.
- The NAV of the Fund may be influenced in the event that transactions of securities are made in a mother fund which the Fund invests in, due to changes in the capital in its baby fund.
- A REIT substantially invested in by the Fund may have low fluidity, and investments in such REITs may be more restricted than investments in high fluidity stocks, etc.
- When the laws (tax systems, accounting systems, etc.) relating to the REIT and the regulations of real estate change, it will affect the price and dividends of the REIT.
- The market price of the Fund is based upon supply and demand, as calculated through competitive buying and selling on the exchange. Therefore, market price may differ from the NAV itself.
- Please be aware that the Fund will be delisted and the trust will be terminated if the number of units of beneficial interests is below 500,000 for 20 successive business days.

3. Risk Management System

The Management Company examines Fund performance and oversees management risks by having established a committee to take charge of these matters.

- Examination of the Fund performance

The committee reports and deliberates on the results of periodic examinations (analysis/evaluation) of the investment trust's trust asset performance results.

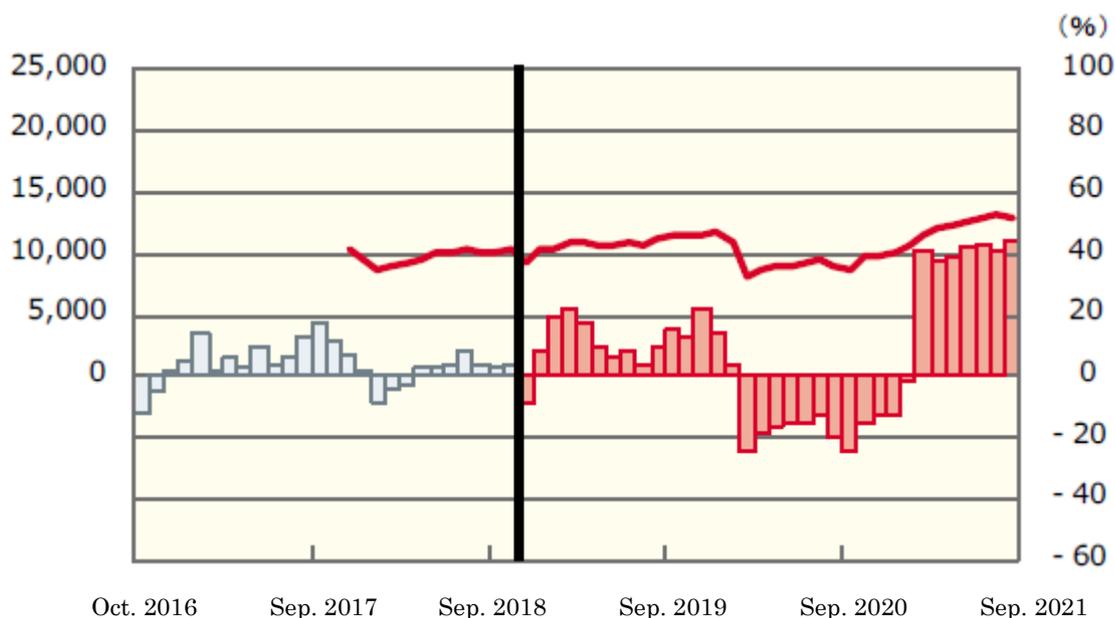

- Administration of management risk

The committee identifies and manages management risk and, based on its findings, provides guidance to the appropriate divisional management and any other relevant sections regarding rectification measures for appropriate administration.

4. Risk Quantitative Comparison (end of October 2016 to the end of September 2021, per month)

<The Fund's annual return and the change of dividend re-investment net asset value >

-  The Fund's annual return (Right Axis)
-  Benchmark Index annual return (Right Axis)
-  Dividend re-investment net asset value (Left Axis)

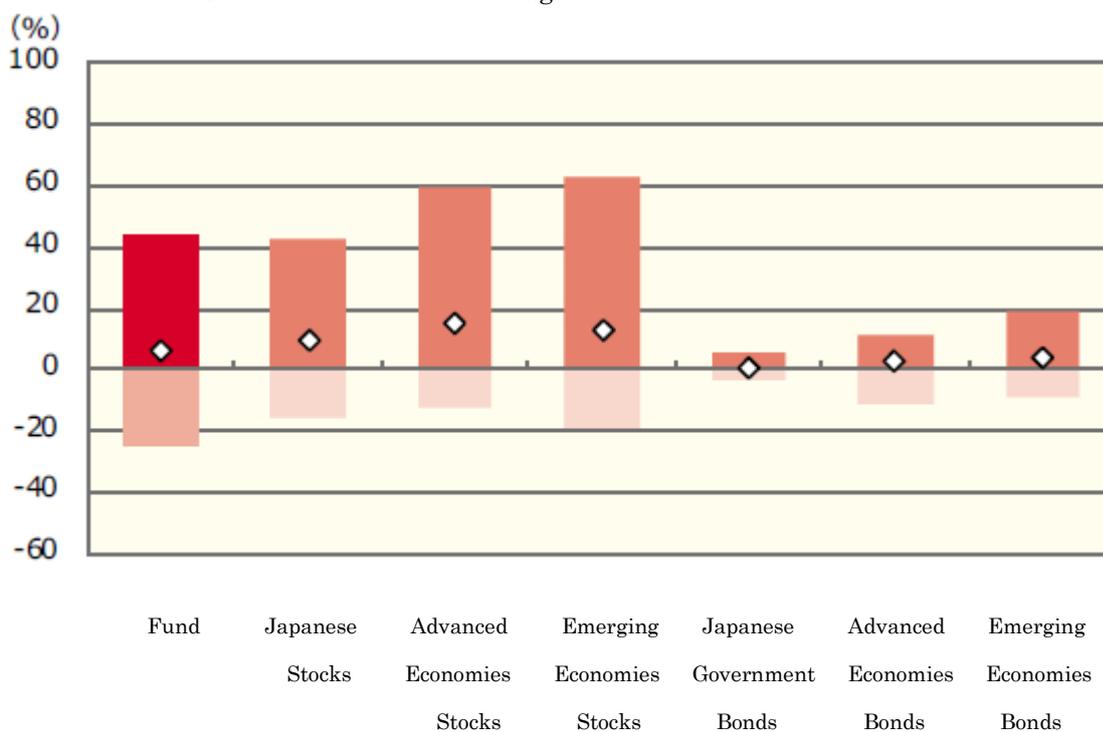

* The dividend re-investment net asset value is calculated by deeming the dividend, as determined before the application of income taxes, to be re-invested. The dividend re-investment net asset value is set by indexing the original principal as 10,000 (per 100 units), and is displayed from the end of the month that includes the inception date.

* The annual return displays the return in a single year at the end of each month for the five years from October 2016 to September 2021. However, the Benchmark Index annual return is only displayed up through November 2018.

* Not all asset classes are the subject of Fund investment.

* The above graph displays the Maximum Value, the Minimum Value and the Average of the annual return at the end of each month for the five years from October 2016 to September 2021. However, prior to the inception date, the annual return of the Fund was calculated by using the Benchmark Index of the Fund.

* The above numbers may not apply as of the account closing day.

* The Fund uses the return of the dividend re-investment net asset value.

The dividend re-investment net asset value may occasionally differ from the actual net asset value due to the dividend being deemed re-invested before the application of income taxes.

■ Tax Treatment

- Tax Treatment is applied at the times listed below.
- The following chart represents tax rates on individual investors at the time of tax withholding.
The tax rate may differ according to the taxation method, etc.

Time	Items	Tax
Receipt of distribution	Income tax, special reconstruction income tax and local tax	Taxed as dividend income 20.315% of income distributions
Sales, redemptions (cancellations) and liquidations	Income tax, special reconstruction income tax and local tax	Taxed as capital gains 20.315% of the profit on sales, redemptions (cancellations) and liquidations

*The foregoing descriptions are as of the end of September 2021. Therefore, the tax rates may change in the event that tax laws are revised.

*If you choose the Japanese version of the Individual Savings Account (known as “NISA”):

“NISA” is the (Nippon) Individual Savings Account, a tax exemption structure pertaining to a listed stock or a publicly offered stock investment trust etc. If you choose to use the NISA structure, income gains and capital gains from newly purchased ETFs etc., for investments of up to a specified amount each year, will be tax exempt for a specified term. In order to be eligible for NISA, certain conditions, such as the requirement that the NISA account be opened by an investor with an eligible distributing company, must be met. Investors should make sure whether or not dividends can be received tax-exempt, as this may depend on the dividend payment method. Please confirm this with the distributing company for further details.

*In the event foreign tax credit is applied by the investment to assets denominated in foreign currency, tax treatment at the time of receipt of the distribution may differ from the percentage listed above.

*The aforementioned descriptions do not apply to Japanese corporations.

*We recommend that investors consult a tax or similar specialist for details of tax treatment.
